

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 24 July 1968

1. [REDACTED]

2. [REDACTED]

IG's office, discussed the case of [REDACTED] an Agency employee, with Homer Lee Krout, Administrative Assistant to Representative Joel Broyhill (R., Va.). Krout thoroughly understood the problem and suggested we write a short letter to the Congressman stating that which we would like to convey to [REDACTED]. Krout said they had found this quite often to be an effective means of communicating with an employee who will not listen to the employer. As an aside he stated that his office does not worry about Agency relations with employees as they have found that the Agency goes into employee matters much more thoroughly than other Government agencies.

3. [REDACTED]

Delivered to Bun Bray, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee staff, a copy of the Agency's standard list of polygraph questions. It was agreed that this was for their temporary use with Committee members only and is not to be shown to non-Committee members. In passing, Bray said he has no idea when they will come up with a clean bill on S. 1035.

4. [REDACTED]

Picked up from the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, [REDACTED] 12 copies of the Subcommittee's publication "Rebellion in Russia's Europe - Fact and Fiction."

5. [REDACTED]

In response to his request, I furnished to Mr. Edwin Feulner, House Republican Conference Committee staff, the [REDACTED] agreement between [REDACTED]